

Wave 28 Sep 1972

SOCIETY NEWS

The Stake President and members of the High Council met Sunday with the Heber First Ward in their Conference. In the morning session, Bishop Larry Duke and counselor Ezra Van Wagoner, Pres. Duane C. Price, Jay A. Quealy, the high council representative to that ward, Kevin DiStefano and Vickie Knight were the speakers. The Ward Choir furnished the musical numbers. Joyce Duke is the director with Joan Duke as accompanist, in the afternoon session. Stake Clerk John Carlile presented ward officers and a sustaining vote was given. The speakers were Pres. Robert F. Clyde, his counselor James Smedley and Ramon Duke of the Bishopric. A ladies quartet, Joyce Nicol, Linda Elliott, Carol Lawson and Carol Bonner sang, "Sweet Is the Work" with Joan Duke as accompanist. The ward choir sang "Love at Home" as a closing number.